

Journal of Catholic Social Thought

Volume 11 – Number 1

The Catholic Peace Tradition

Table of Contents

The Legacy of Pacem in Terris

Introduction	3
Barbara Wall, Villanova University
Papal Thoughts on Peace since Vatican II	9
Kenneth Himes, OFM, Boston College
Assessing Pacem in Terris 50 Years On: A Personal Odyssey	33
David Cortright, University of Notre Dame
Peacebuilding: A Practical Strategy of Hope	47
Lisa Cahill, Boston College
Virtue and Peacemaking	67
Eli McCarthy, Georgetown University
Peace in this World? Theology and Catholic Peacebuilding	93
Laurie Johnston, Emmanuel College
Catholicism's Peacemaking Agenda	105
David Cochran, Loras College
The Spirituality of Non-Violence	127
Margaret Pfeil, University of Notre Dame
Community versus Empire: The Catholic NGO – United Nations Relationship in an Augustinian Perspective	151
Emeka Xris Obiezu, OSA, Permanent Representative of the Augustinian Order to the United Nations

Just War Theory Revisited

Augustine and Just War Theory	179
Fidèle Ingiyimbere, SJ, Boston College
Killing in War as a Persisting Problem of Conscience	203
Prisco R. Hernández, US Army Command & General Staff College
Reframing Catholic Theories of Just War	229
Phillip J. Rossi, SJ, Marquette University
Torture, Terror and the Body of Christ	241
Mark Allman, Merrimack College

Resources

Book Essay: J. Brian Benestad, Church, State, and Society: An Introduction to Catholic Social Doctrine	263
Steven Brust, Lock Haven University
Evangelicals and Catholics Together on Law: The Lord of Heaven and Earth	273
A Joint Statement	